

The Jerry Rose Scholarship of Excellence
and
The Friends of West Virginia Culture and History Scholarship

APPLICATION

The West Virginia State Dance Festival offers two $500 scholarships to exceptional dancers who perform at the festival. The Jerry Rose Scholarship of Excellence is named for the Beckley dance instructor who is committed to mentoring dance students and supporting the state's dance community and is funded by West Virginia Division of Culture and History. The Friends of West Virginia Culture and History Scholarship is a generous donation from the nonprofit organization, which is dedicated to supporting programs of the division.

The scholarships provide opportunities for young dancers to further their dance education by assisting them with expenses associated with professional dance-related workshops or classes.

Criteria for the Scholarship

- Candidates must be 14 to 18 years old.
- Candidates must be advanced dancers for two years in accordance with the West Virginia State Dance Festival guidelines.
- Candidates must be full-time dancers with a West Virginia dance company that attends the West Virginia State Dance Festival.
- Candidates must be residents of West Virginia.
- Candidates must be enrolled and attend classes at the 2017 West Virginia State Dance Festival.

Audition Guidelines

Applications must be received by the division by January 12, 2018.

Late applications are not accepted.

- Candidates must audition during the adjudication weekend February 16–18, 2018. Video auditions are not accepted. West Virginia Dance Festival adjudicators will select the scholarship recipients.
- Candidates must perform a short audition piece consisting of a dance excerpt or a dance improvisation of a performance piece. The audition piece can be no longer than three minutes and must be different from the candidate's adjudication piece for the dance festival.
- The dancers who are awarded a scholarship must be available to perform either Friday or Saturday night during the festival.
- Music must be in CD format.
- Following the class/workshop, the dancer must provide a summary of their experience to the West Virginia Division of Culture and History.

Send all applications to Division of Culture and History, Dance Scholarship,
The Culture Center, 1900 Kanawha Boulevard East, Charleston, West Virginia 25305-0300.
