As elementary and secondary students begin a new academic year, we hope all organizations and individuals interested in West Virginia history will contact their local schools to offer their services as speakers to history and social studies classes, as well as school clubs and scout troops. If your organization or community is planning any type of history and genealogy related exhibit or program, be sure to invite local students and teachers to participate or attend as appropriate. Perhaps tutoring services can be offered to eighth graders preparing for their Golden Horseshoe exams. Sponsor essay contests or offer awards to be given at the end of the school year to the most enthusiastic history students. Don’t forget to recruit Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts and other service organizations for youngsters to assist with cemetery cleanups and similar projects. The rewards can be great and lasting for all concerned.

Historic Preservation Survey and Planning Grants Available

Applications are now being accepted for historic preservation survey and planning grants through the State Historic Preservation Office (SHPO) of the West Virginia Division of Culture and History. Approximately $80,000 is earmarked for this grant program, which is funded with money appropriated by the U.S. Congress through the National Park Service Historic Preservation Fund. State or local government agencies, not-for-profit organizations, for-profit firms or organizations, and educational institutions are eligible to apply. Eligible projects include architectural and archaeological surveys, preparation of nominations to the National Register of Historic Places, heritage education programs relating to preservation activities, pre-development activities, and comprehensive planning documents and development projects. Funded projects must be completed by June 30, 2006.

Grant funds are awarded on a matching basis. A competitive process is used to determine the recipients with the final decision being made by the West Virginia Archives and History Commission. The Commission selects projects that best meet the established priorities and criteria. Development projects will be considered only when all of the justifiable funding needs of eligible projects in other categories are met.

Downtown Revitalization Institute Offering Training Opportunities

The Downtown Revitalization Institute, a partnership effort of Main Street West Virginia and Coalfield Community Development, is offering training opportunities for economic development of downtown communities in West Virginia. The two-day sessions are intended to assist economic development organizations; state, county and city government officials; chambers of commerce; nonprofit boards and directors, and all citizens interested in revitalizing the downtown districts of their communities. Topics include:

- National Development Council
- Economic Development Deal Structuring
- Real Estate Finance
- Business Plan Certification
- Building a Sustainable Organization
- Defining Your Vision and Mission
- Developing Your Community for Cultural Heritage Tourism
- Using Market Analysis to Guide Economic Growth
- Destination Design

Continued on the next page
New Titles

Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass, An American Slave: Frederick Douglass, 1899.
The Impending Crisis, 1848-1861: David M. Potter, 1976.
Stories from the Hills: Barbara Yeager, editor, 1970.
Brooke County (WV) Index: Complete Transcription of County Court Order Book, Volumes 54-57: Gwendolyn Mackey Hubbard and Bobbie Britt Elliott; index by Kenneth Fischer Craft, Jr., 2004.
The People Sing with Kathryn Kuhlman: Kathryn Kuhlman, 1949.

“Grants” Continued from page 1
have been addressed. All grant monies must be administered in accordance with federal and state requirements. The deadline for applications is October 31, 2004. Program descriptions and application packets, including funding priorities and selection criteria, are available by contacting:

Pamela Brooks
Grants Coordinator
SHPO
West Virginia Division of Culture and History
The Cultural Center
1900 Kanawha Blvd. East
Charleston, WV 25305-0300
(304) 558-0240, Ext. 720
www.wvculture.org/shpo/work05

“Institute” Continued from page 1

We know many of our readers are active in Main Street programs in their communities or in related efforts to encourage cultural heritage tourism. Persons and organizations knowledgeable about genealogy, local history and historic preservation in their hometowns are vital resources to the community leaders engaged in downtown revitalization projects. Whether a site or resource being promoted is within a downtown area may not matter—the more a county or region has to offer, the more likely visitors will be to come to an area. Likewise, if you or your organization is deeply involved in preserving and promoting a single site, explore the possible benefits of linking your efforts with the greater community to everyone’s mutual benefit.

Sessions are scheduled around the state as follows:
Logan October 19-20, 2004
Flatwoods January 24-25, 2005
Lewisburg April 5-6, 2005
Wheeling June 1-2, 2005

Registration for each two-day session is $70.00. For further information, contact Marsha Geyer, Main Street West Virginia, (800) 982-3386, or mgeyer@wvdot.org.

History Day
March 17, 2005

All organizations interested in history and genealogy are urged to begin preparations now for participation in History Day at the West Virginia Legislature next March 17. Since the West Virginia State Archives will be celebrating its centennial in 2005, we hope to have an extra special celebration of West Virginia’s history, plus a strong demonstration of the importance of not only collecting and preserving the physical items containing that history, but of making those resources available to the public.
Samuels-Pierpont Collection

The Archives and History Library houses many letters and documents with historical significance. The collection of the combined papers of Governor Francis H. Pierpont and of Adjutant General Henry J. Samuels of the Restored Government of Virginia, the precursor to the state of West Virginia, contains over 1,400 letters and other documents relating to both civilian concerns and military matters. The papers, the majority of which are dated in 1862, are arranged in alphabetical order by the name of the writer or petitioner, with a printed finding aid. Now the collection can be searched on-line through the West Virginia Memory Project database at http://wvmemory.wvculture.org/index.htm. A search can be conducted according to these categories: Words Anywhere, Written By, Written To, Date, and Location (town or county). For example, a search for “David Hunter Strother” found several documents, including: Written By Strother, David H., Written To Pierpont, Date of 1862/05/07, and Subject listed as “seeks commission from native state, recommended by W. T. Willey.” Although the actual documents are not accessible on-line, a researcher can locate documents relevant to specific people and places, then request to view those papers upon visiting the Archives or request copies through a research letter.

Permission to reprint articles from West Virginia Archives and History News is granted, provided: (1) The reprint is not used for commercial purposes, and (2) the following notice appears at the end of the reprinted material: Previously published in West Virginia Archives and History News, [Volume and issue numbers], [Month, Year], a publication of the West Virginia Division of Culture and History.

Calendar of Events

Please check our web site (http://www.wvculture.org/history) for genealogical and historical society meeting announcements, and for more complete information on activities listed below.

WEST VIRGINIA STATE MUSEUM CLOSED FOR RENOVATIONS
The Cultural Center, Charleston.
Reopening date will be announced at a later time.

LABOR DAY, September 6: Archives Library will be closed.

COLUMBUS DAY, October 11: Archives Library will be open.*

DOWN TOWN REVITALIZATION INSTITUTE
October 19-20: Logan

McC REIGHT LECT URE, October 28:

ELECTION DAY, November 2: Archives Library will be open.*

VETERANS DAY, November 11: Archives Library will be open.*

*Only the Archives Library will be staffed--all other Archives offices will be closed. The West Virginia Library Commission Library in the Cultural Center is closed weekends and all holidays.

The West Virginia Division of Culture and History seeks to expand its African American and Native American resources.

Do you have West Virginia...

- African American and Native American
- Photographs ● Documents ● Books ● Letters
- Postcards for the West Virginia State Archives?
  Contact Fredrick Armstrong at 304.558.0230, ext. 164, or fharmstrong@wvculture.org

- African American and Native American
- Artifacts for the West Virginia State Museum Collection?
  Contact Stan Bumgardner at 304.558.0220, ext. 121, or stanley.bumgardner@wvculture.org

- African American and Native American
- Writers and story ideas for GOL DENSEAL magazine?
  Contact John Lilly at 304.558.0220, ext. 135, or john.lilly@wvculture.org

- African American and Native American
- Historic sites or buildings for possible nomination to the National Register of Historic Places?
  Contact Alan Rowe at 304.558.0240, ext. 712, or alan.rowe@wvculture.org
We would love to hear from you.
Let us know what you find helpful in the newsletter, and what new topics you would like covered.

Contact West Virginia Archives and History News Editor
Susan Scouras, (304) 558-0230, Ext. 742, or by e-mail: susan.scouras@wvculture.org.

Archives and History Staff

Fredrick Armstrong .......................................................... Director
Debra Basham ........................................................................... Archivist (photographs, special collections)
Constance Baston ....................................................................... Researcher (Veterans Memorial Archives)
Greg Carroll .............................................................................. Historian (Civil War, Native American history)
Dick Fauss ................................................................................ Archivist (microfilm and moving images collection)
Allen Fowler ............................................................................. Special projects
Elaine Gates ............................................................................ Library Assistant (microfilming and microfilm repairs)
Joe Geiger ............................................................................... Assistant Director (Historian, Web page)
Ed Hicks .................................................................................... Photographer (archival photography, darkroom)
Mary Johnson ............................................................................. Historian (West Virginia History)
Terry Lowry ............................................................................. Library Assistant (Civil War)
Cathy Miller ............................................................................. Library Assistant (WV State documents, periodicals)
Sharon Newhouse .................................................................. Secretary
Harold Newman ................................................................... Library Assistant (microfilming, Revolutionary War)
Pat Pleska .............................................................................. Manager of the Veterans Memorial Archives
Susan Scouras ...................................................................... Librarian (cataloging, Kentucky, library collection, newsletter editor)
Jaime Simmons ..................................................................... Library Assistant (records of the 1700's and early 1800's, Pennsylvania)
Bobby Taylor ......................................................................... Library Manager
Nancy Waggoner .................................................................. Secretary
Volunteers ................................................................................. Carolyn Conner, Bill Kelley, Angela Tolbert, Bob and Lucile Foster,
                                                               John McClure, Carol de la Riva, Lorene Mullins, and Kellis and Virginia Gillespie

This newsletter is a publication of: The West Virginia Division of Culture and History
Troy O. Body, Commissioner