

Council for West Virginia Archaeology

Early Woodland Workshop

The Council for West Virginia Archaeology will hold its spring workshop on Early Woodland, Saturday, June 4, 2011, in the Admin Building, Room 319, Marshall University South Charleston Campus, 100 Angus E. Payton Dr., South Charleston. Registration will begin at 8:00 a.m. and presentations will begin at 8:55 a.m.

A block of rooms has been reserved for Friday night at the Ramada Plaza Hotel, 400 Second Avenue, South Charleston, West Virginia (304-744-4641). Room rates for the conference are $89.00 + tax for a double. Mention the Council For WV Archaeology or the WV Archeological Society to get the special rate. Please make reservations by May 20, 2011.

The hotel and Marshall University South Charleston Campus are located about a mile from the South Charleston (Creil) Mound, the largest mound in the Kanawha Valley. For those interested The Council for West Virginia Archaeology will conduct a tour of the South Charleston mounds after the workshop.

Early Woodland Workshop Schedule

June 4, 2011

Location: Admin Building, Room 319, Marshall University South Charleston Campus

Registration: $10, members; $15, non-members; $5, students.
Checks should be made out to Council for WV Archaeology and mailed to:

Bob Maslowski
PO Box 213
Milton, WV 25541

If you have any questions about this workshop, please contact The Council for West Virginia Archaeology. www.cwva.org

Program agenda:

8:00 - 8:55

Registration/Coffee

8:55-9:00

Welcome and Introductory Comments

9:00-9:30

Steve Mocas

Early Woodland of the Falls of the Ohio Region

9:30-10:00

Mark A. McConaughy

The Early Woodland Period of Southwestern Pennsylvania and the West Virginia Panhandle: Is Big Really Better?

10:00- 10:30

Jarrold Burks

The McCoy Mound in South Central Ohio—Results of the 1960s Excavations

10:30 -10:45

Break

10:45-11:15

Matthew P. Purtil and Jeremy A. Norr
“Adena” Paired-Post Ceremonial Features in the Middle Ohio Valley: An Example from the Greenly Site #1 (33AD121), Adams County, Ohio

11:15-11:45

Sean M. Rafferty

Are there Adena “culture areas”?

11:45-12:15

Mark F. Seeman

Cotiga Mound and the Interpretation of Adena Interaction

12:15-12:45

Berle Clay

Discussant

12:45-2:00

Lunch

2:00

Meet at South Charleston Mound for Mound tour