

Grave Creek Mound Archaeological Complex

Programs and Events

801 Jefferson Avenue, Moundsville, WV (304) 843-4128
Open 9 am – 5 pm Tue – Sat. Closed Sun and Mon
Outdoor access is weather permitting and closes at 4:30 pm
All events are open to the public free of charge

Programs

Saturday, May 20, and Saturday, June 3, noon – 4 pm

Annual Planting of the Interpretive Garden

Help plant the garden and learn about the Three Sisters (corn, beans, and squash) who were planted together in many Native American gardens. There are also indoor activities – the program will take place rain or shine.

At the Discovery Table

Free family crafts available during regular museum hours

April: “Celebrate Art”

Art supplies will be on hand to create a masterpiece of your own.

May: “Plant Sunflower Seeds”

Plant sunflower seeds from the museum’s Interpretive Garden in cups to take home and grow in your own garden.

OVER

2017 Archaeological Lecture and Film Series

Thursday, March 30, 7 pm

Lecture – “Survey and Documentation of Hampshire County Cemeteries”

By James Vosvick, West Virginia Office Manager, Weller & Associates, Inc.

Focuses on how community involvement was instrumental in identifying cemeteries that have been forgotten and/or destroyed and are in danger of being lost. Find out how to save and protect these historic resources.

Thursday, April 27, 7 pm

Lecture: “Beneath the Poppies and Crosses: What Archaeology Reveals about the First World War”

By Hank Lutton, Curator, Grave Creek Mound Archaeological Complex.

April 2017 marks the centenary of the United States’ entry into the First World War. This program examines the recent contributions that archaeology has made to provide a better understanding of “The War to End All Wars.” Recent discoveries, including forensic evidence, are transforming our knowledge of how individual soldiers lived and died a century ago.

Thursday, May 25, 7 pm

Lecture: “Early Native Americans in West Virginia: The Fort Ancient Culture”

By Darla Spencer, Author and Registered Professional Archaeologist (RPA).

Based on research for her book of the same title, Ms. Spencer summarizes current knowledge of the Fort Ancient people in West Virginia. Ms. Spencer is a native West Virginian and serves as secretary/treasurer of the West Virginia Archeological Society.

Second Saturday Films

April 8, 1 and 3 pm

“NOVA: Secret Tunnel Warfare” (60 min)

Historians and archaeologists explore secret tunnels constructed as part of WWI battle strategy.

May 13, 1 and 3 pm

“We Shall Remain: Tecumseh’s Vision” (90 min).

The story of Shawnee leader Tecumseh and his brother, Tenskwatawa, the Prophet. While the Prophet lead a spiritual revival movement, Tecumseh forged a political and military alliance that united members of tribes from across the Midwest.

Find information on the latest programs, exhibits, and events,
“Artifact of the Week”,
and more at

www.wvculture.org
www.facebook.com/gravecreekmound
www.twitter.com/gravecreekmound

