HOW TO GET HERE
Chief Logan State Park is located off WV Hwy 10, four miles north of Logan, WV.

From Charleston, WV area: go south on US Hwy 119, past the town of Chapmanville, turn left onto Old Logan Road and drive about 5 miles. The Park entrance is on the right.

Coming from Williamson, WV or Eastern KY: go north on US 119 approximately 30 miles. About 5 miles north of Fountain Place Mall (Walmart), turn right onto Old Logan Rd and go about 5 miles. The Park entrance is on the right.

From downtown Logan and points east – drive 4 miles north of Logan on Hwy 10. Park entrance is to the left just past the Exxon Station and Parkway Restaurant.

The museum building is located in the “Y” fork of the main park road about 1 mile from the entrance.

Registration and sign-in begins at the Museum in the Park at 9am. Coffee and breakfast pastries will be available.

Trails are rated from Easy to Difficult depending on length of trail and/or grade of slopes and choice of trails will be available to hikers.

WHERE TO STAY
For those who would like overnight accommodations, there are several hotels and motels convenient to the Park. In many cases, reservations will be required. Please contact the lodging directly for reservation and rate information.
