

West Virginia State Museum SESQUICENTENNIAL PROGRAMS

*The West Virginia State Museum invites you to three Sesquicentennial programs
about West Virginia's 150-year history since becoming the 35th state in 1863.*

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

February 9, 2013

At Home, Victorian Life in the City

Coin: Cardinal, the State Bird

March 9, 2013

Pre-Statehood, Victorian Life in the Country

Coin: Honey Bee, the State Insect

April 27, 2013

The History of West Virginia's State Symbols

Coin: The State Seal

Each event will feature artifacts from the state museum collection, videos and documentaries
in the media room and hands-on projects.

Limited edition commemorative coins will be distributed at each program.

EEO/AA
Employer

10 a.m. – 3 p.m.

West Virginia State Museum Education Center